

OUR UNION IS CHANGING! | We're Part of Something BIG

WHAT?

The Canadian Auto Workers union & The Communications, Energy and Paper Workers Union Of Canada are joining together to build Unifor.

Unifor will have more than 300,000 members and will be the largest private sector union in Canada. Unifor's membership will have:

- Representation in every region in Canada—we will be truly coast to coast to coast
- Members in more than 20 different economic sectors
- 86,000 women members
- Tens of thousands of aboriginal and workers of colour members

WHY?

To better serve your needs, respond to your concerns and ensure your rights at work, our union is changing!

To build a bigger, stronger union with bargaining power in over 20 industries, representation in every region of Canada, two great Canadian unions are coming together! To advocate for and safeguard the economic rights of working people, including:

- Safer workplaces
- Secure employment
- Wages and benefits that provide a decent standard of living, dignity and mutual respect in the work place

HOW?

Over the next few months, there will be many opportunities for you to participate in the formation of our new union. Unifor will be formed Labour Day weekend at the Founding Convention. You'll have the opportunity to participate through a livestream.
